Dated, Bangalore, 23rd Decr. 194

FROM

The Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

To

Sri S. Krishnamurthy,
Assistant Secretary to Government,
Financial Department, BANGALORE.

Sir,

With reference to your representation dated 1st December 1949 regarding the grant of combined leave for a period of six months before the date of superannuation, I am directed to state that leave cannot be granted now. You may avail yourself of the leave you are entitled to, calculated from the date of your application to the date of your superannuation after retirement.

Yours faithfully, for Chief Secretary to Government.

'A' cork mean. hri loss of a month. & 13 days leave after 32 years of hard and unblemished service. I had submitted my intention of taking leave to hri Jc Secy in Sept 48 itself. Only, I did not formally apply, for the simple reason that the work in the Branch had to be carried on with speed owing to financial integration proposals. & other items.
I presume myself that hri intention is not to make me lose the leave in his favour and of my service - I request I may be allowed to carry the credit of full six months leave. JcSecy 1/1/1950

33 Sri Krishnamurthy had at his credit combined leave for one year on the date on which he attained the age of superannuation, viz; 18.4.50.

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

Serial No.

34 Sri S. Krishnamurthy has been granted an extension of service for one year with effect from 18.4.50 and also has been permitted to avail himself of the leave he is entitled to calculated from the date of his application to the date of his supersannuation (calculated from 1.12.49 to 18.4.50) after retirement. (Vide letter no. 245-A-49-1 dated 23.12.49) D

35 It has been certified by the Accountant-General that Sri Krishnamurthy is entitled to 4 months and 17 days leave calculated from 1.12.49 to 18.4.50. The kind of leave (privilege or furlough) is not made clear.

36 It has been ordered on this file that Sri Krishnamurthy may be permitted to utilise Combined leave for a period of 6 months after the expiry of extension of service granted to him.

37 The Accountant General has further stated that in case the refunded leave is not utilised before the expiry of the extension of service granted, the same will also lapse after the expiry of the extension of service already granted.

38 In letter no. 245-A-49-1 dated 23.12.50 D
it has been stated that Sri Krishnamurthy may avail himself of the leave he was entitled to, calculated from the date of his application to the date of his superannuation after retirement: it may perhaps be presumed that the word "retirement" might there mean later the date of superannuation. As Sri Krishnamurthy has been granted an extension of service for one year from 18.4.50, his services will normally be ceased, unless otherwise ordered, on 18-4-51.

39 under the circumstances the Accountant General may perhaps be informed that Sri Krishnamurthy is permitted to avail Commuted leave for a period of 6 months after the expiry of extension of service granted to him.

40 Submitted with reference to para 31 supra.

24/5/50. (sd) The availment of the leave to which the officer is entitled under present orders has been postponed by the grant of an extension of service. The leave could be utilised either during the period of extension or at the end of it or even later (if another extension of service intervenes) when his duties finally cease and preparatory to retirement from service. Under Art. 147 M.S.R. however, a formal application for leave and refusal seems to be contemplated in two stages, once before attaining the age of superannuation and again during the period of extension. In this case, an extension of service had already been granted to the Officer when orders were issued permitting him to carry forward the leave which was at his credit before he attained the age of superannuation, and another formal application for leave and refusal may not therefore be necessary.

42) If approved, order may now be issued permitting Sri Krishnamurthy to avail himself of six months' Combined leave (~~of which~~ of which 2 months and 24 days will be privilege leave, 2 months and 3 days furlough on full average Salary, and the rest furlough on Half average Salary) preparatory to retirement from service from whatever date the retirement may be ordered in due course.

SUB:- Representation of Sri S. Krishnamurthy, Assistant Secretary to Government for grant of leave for a period of six months from the date of retirement from service.

In a note dated 1st December 1949, Sri S.Krishnamurthy, Assistant Secretary to Government, Financial Branch, requested that he may be granted six months combined leave, which he said was at his credit, from a date convenient to Government. He also stated that strictly speaking he should have applied earlier but was prevented from doing so owing to rush of work.

Sri Krishnamurthy is due to reach the age of superannuation on the 17th April 1950, and has been granted an extension of service for one year from 17th April 1950.

The Financial Secretary noted on the case as follows:-

"The leave cannot be given now and would not have been recommended if it had been applied for earlier, as many important items of work need his attention, like questions regarding Integration, K.G.F. new agreement, E.C.O's report. The six month's leave may be refused and he may be permitted to avail himself of this refused leave of six months commencing from the ~~date~~ day he hands over charge on retirement."

The Chief Secretary concurred in the proposal, and when the case was put up to the Minister for Finance and Industries he minuted as follows:-

"What has been the practice in regard to leave during extension period? Does not such leave as ~~are~~ one may be entitled to expire at the end of the pre-extension period? The extension has been ~~pointed~~ granted already and how can this be considered now?"

This was replied to by the Financial Secretary as follows:-

"If the leave has been asked for and refused in the interests of Public Service it does not lapse, whether retirement commences naturally or is put off by an extension granted.

The extension merely postpones the dates of the commencement and end of the leave asked for, refused and therefore at the credit of the officer prior to the date of natural retirement".

The Minister for Finance & Industries then passed orders on the case as follows:-

"No leave can be granted now.

He can get the leave he is entitled to calculated from the date of his application to the date he would have superannuated from after retirement".

Orders were issued accordingly with the approval of the Chief Minister.

Sri Krishnamurthy has submitted a representation that the calculation of leave from the date of his application to the date of his superannuation would mean the loss of one month and 13 days' leave. He has also stated that he submitted his intention of taking leave to the Financial Secretary in Sept.48 but did not formally apply for the reason that the work in the Branch had to be carried on with hectic speed owing to Financial Integration proposals and other items. On his representation the Financial Secretary has noted as follows:-

"This is a very small concession to an officer who richly deserves it and whose work has been characterised by marked ability, intelligence, application and industry, I recommend that this small concession may kindly be granted."

When the file was submitted to Minister for Finance and Industries with references showing the precedents he minuted as follows:-

"May be sanctioned. But it shall not become a precedent for his successor or any one else".

In a note dated 1st December 1949, Sri T. Krishnamurthy, Assistant Secretary to Government, Financial Branch, requested that he may be granted six months combined leave, which he said was at his credit, from a date convenient to Government. He also stated that strictly speaking he should have applied earlier but was prevented from doing so owing to rush of work.

Sri Krishnamurthy is due to reach the age of superannuation on the 17th April 1950, and has been granted an extension of service for one year from 17th April 1950.

The Financial Secretary noted on the case as follows:-

"The leave cannot be given now and would not have even recommended if it had been applied for earlier, as many important items of work need his attention, like questions regarding Integration, T.C.P. new agreement, A.G.'s report. The six month's leave may be refused and he may be permitted to avail himself of this refused leave of six months ~~commencing~~ Commencing from the day he hands over charge on retirement."

The Chief Secretary concurred in the proposal, and when the case was put up to the Minister for Finance and Industries he minuted as follows:-

"What has been the practice in regard to leave during extension period? Does not such leave as one may be entitled, to expire at the end of the pre-extension period? The extension has been granted already and how can this be considered now?

This was replied to by the Financial Secretary as follows:-

"If the leave has been asked for and refused in the interests of Public Service it does not lapse, whether retirement commences naturally or is put off by an extension granted.

The extension merely postpones the dates of the commencement and end of the leave asked for, refused and therefore at the credit of the officer prior to the date of natural retirement."

The Minister for Finance & Industries then passed orders on the case as follows:-

"No leave can be granted now.

He can get the leave he is entitled to calculated from the date of application to the date he would have superannuated from after retirement."

Orders were issued accordingly with the approval of the Chief Minister.

Sri Krishnamurthy has submitted a representation that the calculation of leave from the date of his application to the date of his superannuation would mean the loss of one month and 13 days' leave. He has also stated that he submitted his intention of taking leave to the Financial Secretary in September 1948 but did not formally apply for the reason that the work in the Branch had to be carried on with hectic speed owing to Financial Integration proposals and other items. On his representation the Financial Secretary has noted as follows:-

> "This is a very small concession to an officer who richly deserves it and whose work has been characterised by marked ability, intelligence, application and industry. I recommend that this small concession may kindly be granted."

When the file was submitted to Minister for Finance and Industries with references showing the precedents he minuted as follows:-

> "May be sanctioned. But it shall not become a precedent for his successor or any one else."

The Chief Minister has ordered that the matter may be disposed of by circulation.
